Sekolah Tinggi Ilmu Ekonomi Syariah Nahdlatul Ulama Bengkulu, Indonesia

Nomor. 028/STIESNU.BKL/II/2024

Krirk University, represented by the International Islamic College, Sekolah Tinggi Ilmu Ekonomi Syariah Nahdlatul Ulama Bengkulu, represented by Islamic Economic College, hereby express their intention to formalize their partnership through the signing of a Memorandum of Agreement (MoA). This collaboration aims to strengthen and promote research partnership. Both parties are committed to a cooperative relationship founded on principles of equality and mutual benefit. To this end, the parties agree to the following terms: -

(a) Areas of Collaboration:

i. Research Collaboration: We aim to collaborate on joint research projects and scholarly activities, harnessing the collective expertise of both faculties.

ii. Academic Exchange: This collaboration will encompass faculty and student exchanges, aimed at fostering human resource development, including the opportunity for individuals to pursue advanced studies at either university. Additionally, it will facilitate cross-cultural learning experiences and the exchange of valuable academic knowledge.

iii. Workshops and Seminars: We will jointly organize workshops, seminars, and conferences to promote intellectual exchange and enrich our academic communities.

iv. Resource Sharing: Collaboratively utilize research facilities, laboratories, and libraries to enhance our research capabilities.

v. Curriculum Development: Explore opportunities to develop joint courses or programs that provide interdisciplinary learning experiences.

vi. Publications: Collaborate on joint publications, including contributions to renowned journals indexed in WoS and/or SCOPUS, to make substantial contributions to the global academic community.

(b) Compliance with Official Protocol:

All parties commit to adhere to and comply with the necessary steps outlined in the official protocol of each party.

(c) Duration:

Furthermore, this MoA shall be effective for five years, with the possibility of extension, provided that the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is actively under negotiation, and collaborative research, training, and academic partnerships are ongoing.

(d) Revocation:

It is understood that any party may revoke this Letter of Intent at any time by providing written notice to the other parties.

(e) Non-binding Nature:

This MoA serves solely as a record of the parties' intentions and does not establish any legality binding or enforceable obligations, whether expressed or implied.

This letter of Intent shall come to effect when duly signed by both parties.
